

A 2 Day Cultural Discovery in a UNESCO Global Geopark

Whatever your interest, from archaeology to adventure, from geology to art and craft, there is something at the Burren and Cliffs of Moher Geopark that will stop you in your tracks!!

Day 1: Find the inspirational landscapes of The Burren

- Arrive in the Geopark along the Wild Atlantic way, stop in the village of New Quay and walk the Flaggy shore made famous by Irish poets Yeats and Heaney. Visit Linnalla Ice-cream cafe at the end of the shore and indulge in the sweet delights of this Burren Food trail producer.
- Drive a short 15 minutes to Ballyvaughan and stop at the internationally renowned Burren College of Art and Newtown Castle in Ballyvaughan. Go up the spiral staircase of the 16th century castle and simply breath in the history of this amazing place with its wattle ceilings and gun loops and all its original features call into their Café and have a light lunch on preparation for your Inspirational Walk
- Meet your Guide Pius of Walk with Pius, experience the rare karst landscape of the Burren. Reconnect with nature, while walking on limestone paths, through hazel groves and meadows rich with Burren flowers and plants. Tap into the Spirituality of a Landscape that goes back to Stone Age and Celtic times.
- Head to Lisdoonvarna and check into your Accommodation but do not go to bed until you visit the award winning Roadside Tavern, home of the smallest and most charming Burren Brewery, delight your taste buds with some Burren Smoke salmon and wash it down with a creamy glass of Burren Black while listening to some of the best life traditional Irish music. If beer is not for you enquire about Anam Coffee, roasted in the very first coffee Roastery of The Burren just a few Kilometres away!

Day 2: Discover the mysteries of the past through the Archaeology and Built Heritage

- Begin your day in the village of Kilfenora, visit the Burren Centre – an interpretive centre for the natural and cultural history of the Burren - explore the medieval Cathedral and the greatest concentrations of high crosses in Ireland. Grab a light bite in the Centre tea room before your cycle
- Explore the archaeology from the comfort of an electric bike with local guide Janet from E-whizz - Visit the iconic Poul nabrone dolmen along with lesser known ring forts and ancient cooking sites.
- Stop for lunch at Burren Fine Wine and Food, just a couple of Km outside Ballyvaughan before heading for Caherconnell ring fort, afterwards roam the fort and watch sheep dog demonstrations before travelling to Doolin.
- Arriving to Doolin visit The Ekotree studio, Ireland's only knitwear visitor centre & working knitwear studio where you will get a thorough insight into the daily workings of a designer-maker knitwear studio.

- Check into your accommodation and enjoy the best of Life Irish music at Fitzpatrick's Bar in Hotel Doolin!
- Before you leave the next day make sure to visit Irish Craft Shop in Doolin and take some memories home with you!
